

Third Grade News

April 30th-May 4th

Please remember all dates are subject to change. Please check the assignment board daily to keep up with the latest information.

Reading: This week we will be working on story structure. We will focus on the parts of a story.

Please remember that the students should also be working on a book report due May 7th.

Math: Monday, April 30th we will have a test on Chapter 8. This chapter focuses on fractions. It was very challenging for many of the students, so please practice this weekend. We will also have a multiplication timed quiz.

Grammar: We will continue working on complex sentences. Towards the end of the week we will focus on abbreviations.

Spelling: Those students who missed the Spelling test will automatically be on List B for this new week. They will take the test they missed on Monday, 4/30.

Writing: This week we will focus on adding dialogue to our writing. Then we will be working on a special Mother's Day project. Moms, please e-mail me a picture of you and your child to use for this project. It can be recent or older. That is entirely up to you.

Science: This week we will continue with Chapter 3 lessons three and four. We will learn about seeds and plant reproduction.

Social Studies: This week we will learn about the three branches of government. We will have a vocab quiz on lesson one and two on 5/7. Please help your child start preparing now.

Religion: This week we will focus on Chapter 11. It focuses on the Church as one and holy. We are tentatively planning a test for 5/10.

Reminders:

Thursday is our field trip to Cranbrook. Please dress for the weather.
