

Third Grade News

January 29th-February 2nd

Please remember all dates are subject to change. Please look at the assignment page each day.

Reading: This week we will continue to work on compare and contrast. When you read with your child, ask them how characters are alike and different.

Spelling: We will have test Thursday, 2/1. The words this week have the /j/ or /s/ sounds.

Grammar: This week we will begin working on adjectives.

Writing: We will continue working on our "I'm an Expert" writing. The students are currently working on their first chapters. They will be adding adjectives to their writing towards the end of this week or the beginning of next week.

Math: We will be starting Chapter 6 on Monday. This chapter focuses on division. It is very important that your child is feeling confident about all of his/her multiplication facts or this chapter can be very difficult. Please continue practicing nightly. This week we will quiz on ten's, but many students need to retake the 7, 8, and 9 review.

Social Studies: The Social Studies test on Chapter 6 will be on 2/6. We have finished reading the chapter, and we will be reviewing during Catholic Schools Week. It focuses on Michigan after the Civil War and reasons immigrants came to Michigan in the 1900's. A study guide will come home early in the week.

Religion: This week we will work on Chapter 8 which focuses on the Paschal Mystery.
