

Third Grade News

January 3rd-January 5th

Please remember all dates are subject to change. Please look at the assignment page each day.

Reading: We will continue work on main idea and supporting details for Wednesday and Thursday. We have tentatively scheduled a test on our novels and the skill for Friday. This is not really something they should need to study for, but you can help them by asking them about the main idea of books they read on their own.

Spelling: We will not have a test this week. Our next test will be on January 11th. It will focus on words that have a vowel + r.

Grammar: We will be working on plural nouns and then we will begin working on using quotation marks.

Writing: We will be finishing our personal essays. We will also begin looking at examples of personal expertise writing. The students will soon begin writing about something on which they feel they are experts.

Math: We will not have a timed quiz on January 3rd. Please use this short week to prepare your child to retake any timed quizzes they need to take.

Social Studies: We will be finishing up Chapter 4. We plan to have a test on Tuesday, 1/9.

Religion: This week we will work on Chapter 7. It focuses on the Kingdom of God and the Gospel message. We plan to test 1/17.

Notes:

Thank you to the parents who came in to chaperone the Christmas party. Thank you also to Mr. and Mrs. Brandow for their hard work planning such great activities. The children loved it!

Thank you so much for the amazing Christmas gifts! It was so nice of you to think of me. It is truly a gift to teach your children every day. I hope you and your families have a wonderful Christmas!
