Reading:

This week we will begin learning about author's purpose. Your child brought home a note about "Walk to Read" in the Friday Folder. We hope to begin this reading structure very soon.

Math:

This week we will finish the second part of Chapter 4 and have a test on Wednesday, 11/15. We will also quiz on 4's on Wednesday.

Spelling:

We will have a test Thursday, November 16th. Our test will be on words that have the vowel sound in "talk."

Writing:

We are working on our prewriting for personal essays.

Grammar:

This week we will have a Grammar test Thursday, 11/16, on commas in a series, simple and compound sentences, and run-on sentences.

Your child can prepare by reviewing the pages in the Reader's Notebook.

Religion:

We will have a test on Chapter 6 on Tuesday. This test will not be open book. The students will need to know about different types of prayer.

Science: This week we will continue working on Chapter 6 which is on the water cycle and weather. There are only 6 vocabulary words for this chapter, so I did not make a quizlet for this one. Please have your child practice his/her cards.

Social Studies:

We are continuing to work on Chapter 3. This lesson focuses on Michigan and the American Revolution. We are projecting that we may be ready for a Social Studies test on 11/29.

Reminders:

Book Fair for our class is Monday at 1:35.

Parent Teacher Conferences are this Wednesday and Thursday. I look forward to talking with you about your amazing children!

Thank you to those who have volunteered to send in something for the Halloween party. Please just send the items in that morning with your child.

We will not have a book order for the month of November due to the Book Fair. Thank you to those of you that have ordered. So far, we have received 14 free books for the classroom!
