

Third Grade News

Please understand that all dates are subject to change. Always look at the assignment board for the most up to date information.

Date: September 5th-8th

Reading:

This week we will continue our work on character traits. We will discuss the difference between internal and external traits.

Math:

We will continue working on rounding and mental math strategies for addition. We are projecting that the first test will be Thursday, 9/14. It will cover the first half of Chapter 1. Remember to check the daily assignments for any changes. This date is tentative. Please practice rounding to the tens and hundreds at home.

Spelling:

We will have a test Thursday, September 7th. Our words are short vowel words. Then we will take a pretest to see who needs a challenge list for lesson 2.

Writing:

We will continue working on our personal narratives this week. Our focus will be adding descriptive details to our writing.

Grammar:

This week we will finish working on subjects and predicates, fragments, capitalization and end punctuation.

We are tentatively planning a quiz on Wednesday, 9/13.

Religion: We will focus on finishing Chapter 1 this week. It is about God as creator. The test is this Friday, September 8th.

Science: This week we will be working on Chapter 1. This chapter focuses on force and motion.

Social Studies: We will finish lesson one on Michigan's location and characteristics. Please help your child study their vocabulary each night.

Reminder: Friday is no longer a half day. It is a full day of school.
